

Kieran Carrel

Tenor

Anglo-German tenor Kieran Carrel was born in 1996 and studied in Cologne with Christoph Prégardien before moving to continue his education at London's Royal Academy of Music with Neil Mackie.

In 2019 Kieran joined the Theater Bonn, where his roles have included Jacquino Fidelio, Beppe Pagliacci and Lympha La Calisto. He will spend the 2022-23 season at the Deutsche Oper Berlin where, in addition to his role debut as Tamino, he will appear in a new production of Bach St Matthew Passion and sing the role of Rodriguez in Don Quichotte and Jacquino in Fidelio.

Most recently he had a great success singing Rinaldo in Haydn's Armida at the Bregenzer Festspiele and other previous opera roles have included Flute A Midsummer Night's Dream, Contino Belfiore Mozart's La finta giardiniera and Ferrando Così fan tutte, all at the Ryedale Festival.

Kieran made his recital debut at the Pierre-Boulez-Saal in Berlin in 2019 as part of the Heidelberger Frühling Schubert Week with Thomas Hampson and Hartmut Höll and in the same year was a finalist in the Wigmore Hall International Song Competition, together with duo partner Richard Gowers. He has since forged a strong relationship with both halls with recent Wigmore appearances including a Hugo Wolf Song Gala with Christoph Prégardien and James Baillieu; Haydn canzonettas with András Schiff and returns this season to perform Vaughan Williams Serenade to Music with the Nash Ensemble and to give his debut solo recital. He will also give an evening recital at the Pierre Boulez Saal and will join Graham Johnson for a recital at the Luxembourg Philharmonie. Kieran recently recorded a complete Brahms Lieder recording with Ulrich Eisenlohr on NAXOS for future release.

Recent concert performances include Evangelist Bach St John Passion with The English Concert and Kristian Bezuidenhout; a recording and performances of Wolf Italienisches Liederbuch and Schumann Dichterliebe with Ensemble Opus and Ralf Gothoni; and Bach Christmas Oratorio with Il Gardellino. This season he will tour Europe with Il Gardellino singing Mozart Requiem and will record JH Rolle's Die Befreyung Israëls with them. He will also sing Evangelist St Matthew Passion at the Collège des Bernardins in Paris.

Other concert highlights have included the Antwerp Symphony Orchestra, Orchestra of the Eighteenth Century, Orchestra l'Arte del Mondo, Bochumer Symphoniker and the Brandenburg Sinfonia in repertoire ranging from Handel Messiah, Mendelssohn Paulus, Beethoven Symphony No. 9, Schumann Das Paradies und die Peri, to Stravinsky Cantata and Arvo Pärt Passio. His recording of CPE Bach's Die Auferstehung und Himmelfahrt Jesu with Il Gardellino and the Flemish Radio Choir conducted by Bart Van Reyn was released in 2022.

Kieran was winner of Second Prize in the Bundeswettbewerb Gesang Berlin 2020.
